This completely unique apartment with beautifully framed views and an interior designed by the renowned SAD architectural studio is the largest unit in the exclusive VII House project—a building created through the sensitive reconstruction of a burgher house in Malá Strana in the southern corner of Valdštejnské Square.

The main living space on the 5th floor of the house will impress you with its size, wonderful brightness, and charming renovated exposed beams. This variable space has a preparation for a kitchen unit and a hanging fireplace. In the right wing of the apartment is the master bedroom with a view of the St. Vitus Cathedral, with a walk-in closet and private bathroom. The other two bedrooms with views of Prague Castle and Wallenstein Palace are in the left part of the apartment, where there is also a bathroom with a shower. The apartment also includes a utility room, a separate toilet, and storage space. There is a spacious attic above the bedrooms and part of the kitchen area, which can be used as a study, library, or relaxation area.

Experienced architects from Atelier SAD, under the leadership of Martin Kalhous, designed this atypical space. The successful result emphasizes the beauty and uniqueness of the space and creates a modern, pleasant, and comfortable home for future owners in this wonderful environment. The high-end facilities include travertine tiles in the bathrooms, oak plank floors made to measure in South Moravia, LED beam lighting, electronic lighting control, air-conditioning, recuperation, and a preparation for an alarm or motorized blinds. A modern elevator with designer glass panels leads to the 4th floor or you can take the wide historical staircase. The apartment includes a cellar with a Gothic vaulted ceiling as if created to store a large wine collection.

The neighborhood in which VII House stands is exceptional due to the presence of the Senate and the Chamber of Deputies and the immediate proximity to Charles Bridge, Prague Castle, Valdštejnská Garden, or Kampa Island. This prestigious address is in the middle of Malá Strana, yet tucked away from the main tourist routes. It's only a few minutes' walk to a tram and metro station. Famous restaurants, stylish cafes, and bistros as well as services for everyday life including schools can be found within walking distance, e.g. the Park Lane International School. A unique set of palace gardens or the nearby slopes of romantic Petřín Hill offer relaxation amongst the greenery.
