This villa from the 1930s with preserved original craftsmanship elements is set in a wonderful location on a quiet side street in a traditional residential district in Prague 4 on the border of Podolí and Pankrác. The partially renovated house with a double garage stands on a corner lot bordered by a hedge.

In the basement is a separate apartment consisting of a living room with a bay window, a kitchen, 1 bedroom, a bathroom, a toilet, a pantry, a utility room, a closet, and a hallway. On the ground floor is a living room with a bay window connected by original sliding doors to the dining room, as well as a kitchen, a pantry, a large terrace, and an entrance hall used as a library; on the first floor are 2 rooms and a master bedroom with a smaller terrace, a bathroom, and a walk-through wardrobe, while the attic contains a large open space (approx. 50 m²), a bedroom, and a bathroom. Both terraces are east-facing.

The villa was built in 1934 and was owned by one family the entire time. The interior features well-preserved original craftsmanship elements, such as parquet floors, wooden and granite staircases, terrazzo, wooden doors, and casement windows including handles as well as wooden built-in blinds or wooden built-in furniture. The apartment in the basement was completely renovated, and the roof was changed about 15 years ago. There are fireplaces on the ground floor and attic, and the primary source of heating is a gas boiler. The building is guarded by a Jablotron security system. Parking is provided in the double garage, behind which is another parking space.

The residential area is decorated with several architecturally significant buildings and plenty of greenery in the established gardens. About 2 minutes by car (approx. 10 minutes on foot) is a kindergarten and elementary school as well as a crèche, and the Arkády Pankrác shopping center is close-by. You can reach the Pražské povstání metro station (line C) in a short time by bus, and a new D line station is also being built nearby. The area is made even more pleasant by several parks and natural monuments, and you can also easily get to the popular swimming pool in Podolí or bike path along the Vltava River.

Usable area of the house approx. 488 m² (of which separate garage 43 m²), built-up area 187 m², garden 495 m², plot 682 m².
