A prestigious location between Lázeňská, Zámecký vrch, and Tržiště streets. From the Market Colonnade, convenient barrier-free access is possible by a public elevator, and access is also possible via a historic staircase. It is possible to drive up to the building (with limited parking). The city, located on the banks of the Ohře and Teplá rivers, offers, in addition to many cafes and restaurants, an international airport, a golf course, or a race track, and an annual world-famous film festival, but at the same time, beautiful surrounding nature, which starts just a few steps from the offered building. Karlovy Vary is connected to the capital city by bus, and the drive from Prague, which takes about 90 minutes, will speed up after the completion of the D6 highway.
