All necessary utilities are available. Convenient access to Prague and all services, including international schools.

All key utility networks are available on a fenced flat plot with up to 15% buildable potential and 80% green space: water, sewerage, gas, and electricity. The plot is already connected to these networks, which greatly facilitates the construction process and the quick start of construction work.

The zoning plan allows for the construction of a family house with two floors up to 9 m high or a ground-floor building with a residential attic. Planted mature trees and shrubs will soon create a green barrier, thanks to which the house will have complete privacy.

Jesenice near Prague has excellent access to the city center (20 minutes to Vyšehrad). The surroundings are mainly family houses and nature, which guarantees pleasant and peaceful living without the hustle and bustle of the big city. Prague-West with Průhonice Park, the Botič Waterfall, and other recreational opportunities is ideal for active families looking for comfortable living in the countryside, but with all civic amenities within easy reach.
