Office space for lease in a Renaissance palace with Baroque features, a large garden, and views of the Prague Castle. The palace is situated in the Lesser Town in an area with numerous embassies.

The history of the palace dates back to the end of the 16th century, when two burgher houses stood on the present site. A few years later they were bought by Count Kryštof František Vratislav of Mitrovice and he had them rebuilt into a palace. The palace consists of two floors with a Classicist facade, terraced garden, massive staircase, surrounding wall, and fountains.
