Office space for lease in a historical palace from 1786 situated on Malostranské náměstí Square, close to the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate. The palace was built on the site of five burgher houses and was designed by architect Josef Jäger. Since 1874, the ground floor housed a popular cafe frequent by many famous Czechs.

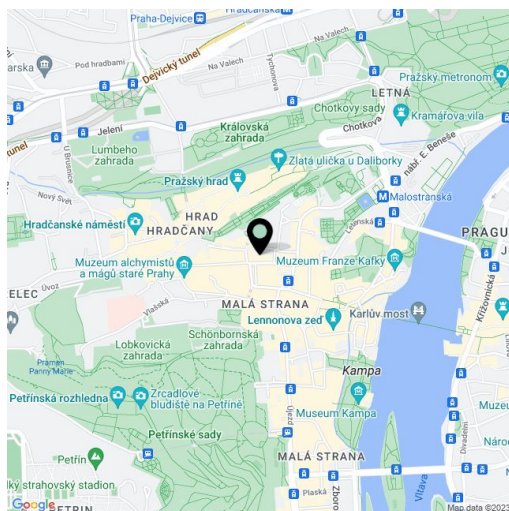

Location:

The building is very easily accessible by public transport – there is a tram stop directly in front of the palace and the Malostranská metro station (line A) is a short walk away.

Features and services:

The offices are bright, and come with all the necessary wiring – telephone, Internet. The building's amenities include a reception, 24/7 security, and elevators. The neighborhood has a wide spectrum of services, including many restaurants and cafes.

Rental and service charges listed without VAT. Lessee pays no commission.
