The La Felicita polo club estate is located in the heart of the Argentinian polo community. Situated in district of Pilar, home to other famous polo clubs, this 77-hectare estate boasts an impressive brand new 2,800 sq. m. house.

The house offers extensive views of the entire property, especially of the main polo field close-by. The high-end interiors have Slavonian oak flooring and panelling throughout as well as premium iron work and finishes. The house features a reception room, a spacious hall (suitable for gatherings of over 200 people), a dining room (for 20 people), 5 en suite bedrooms (w/ bathrooms & dressing rooms), and more. There is a garage for 6 vehicles on the plot.

The estate grounds have an illuminated tennis court, six polo fields (w/ excellent drainage), horse stables (for 44 horses), a saddle house, a veterinary clinic, a training field, and a covered riding arena of 2000 sq. m. Other facilities include a 500-sq. m. clubhouse with dressing rooms and all the necessary amenities for the guests' comfort. Furthermore, there is a guest house and housing for staff members and the manager. The plot has landscaped gardens with sprinkler irrigation.
