This oceanfront property is a stunning ode to the majesty of Renaissance Venice. Serenissima - The Most Serene is one of the finest homes ever built in Florida. Incomparable in architecture, irreplaceable in artistic beauty and situated on the southern end of the coveted Longboat Key overlooking the Gulf of Mexico, this palatial masterwork is simply put, gorgeous.

Built in 2005, the six-bedroom, six-bathroom Serenissima engages all of the senses with its supreme attention to luxurious details. The entrance to the three-story mansion boasts a marble-clad hall that soars to a glass sky dome. Supreme in scale, the house balances large spaces for entertaining with intimate leisure rooms, all of which inspire memorable moments with family and friends. These include a magnificent grand salon, which could easily accommodate 100 guests, a master chef's kitchen, a 10-seat theater and a sunroom adjacent to a pool. Furthermore, Serenissima boasts lyrical Venetian murals, glittering chandeliers, and extraordinary millwork. The abundance of terraces surrounding the house provide incredible views of the pool, beach, and the Gulf of Mexico, and make for an ideal setting for catching awe-inspiring sunsets.

Serenissima is set behind the exclusive gates of The Longboat Key Club, amenities include golf courses, tennis courts, restaurants, a spa, fitness center and marina.

The property is being sold by Michael Saunders & Company. The agent is Michael Moulton.
