This superb Spanish colonial revival in Naples, Florida is positioned along one of Port Royal's most magnificent waterways. The estate was built with great attention, following demanding construction protocols. The high-end details in this house are simply astounding – it is recognized as one of the very finest homes ever built in Naples, Florida.

Some key features of the house, which is a graceful union of utmost comfort and function, include high ceilings (some of which are exposed wood with intricate patterns), wood & tile flooring, a wine cellar, unique wall murals in specific rooms, multiple fireplaces, outdoor living space surrounding the entire house, gorgeous, verdant landscaping with an abundance of swaying palm trees, a breathtaking swimming pool, a golf green, and much more.

Port Royal is a truly treasured Naples's neighborhood. Located by the Gulf of Mexico, the luxurious area is home to magnificent mansions and turquoise waterways.

The property is being sold by William Raveis Real Estate. Thomas L. Campbell, Jr. is the agent.
