This exquisite one of a kind masterpiece features unparalleled details and craftsmanship throughout. The eight-bedroom, nine-bathroom mansion is situated in Windermere, Florida, near the renowned Butler Chain of Lakes, a freshwater paradise and sought after residential community with lavish, grand homes.

From the hand carved millwork to the imported marble fireplaces and over 115 Italian marble columns, this residence surely boasts fine European elegance and grace. As you step through the front doors, you'll be impressed by cathedral ceilings and an indoor waterfall spilling into a koi pond. The fine estate has too many great details to list, however; some major highlights include: A spacious gathering room with views of a pool and the lake, a gourmet kitchen with custom cabinetry, top of the line appliances & exotic fossil stone counter tops from Greece, a luxurious master suite with a private veranda and separate his and hers bathrooms. Additional amenities include two detached guest homes, nanny's quarters, a covered patio with retractable screens and a kitchen, a pool covered by a wood rotunda, a home theater, a stunning home office, and a fitness center with an indoor exercise pool, sauna, and steam room.

One of the state's most sought after lakefront communities, the Butler Chain of Lakes area with lush foliage and fine landscaping, is perfect as it is tranquil and calm yet is only minutes from fine dining, incredible shopping and all of Central Florida's world-famous theme parks.
