This bright southeast-facing apartment's interior was designed by the I.D.Arch studio. It is located on the 2nd floor of a renovated apartment building with an elevator. The house stands on a side street on the border of Bubeneč and Letná, close to Stromovka Park.

The interior consists of a 50-meter living space with an open plan kitchen, a dining room and a balcony, 2 bedrooms, a bathroom (with a shower), a guest toilet, a foyer, a corridor, and a storeroom.

It was completely renovated in 2016 under the supervision of the recognized architect Ivana Dombková. The facilities include oak parquet floors, tile floors, replicas of original casement windows, a kitchen with an island (induction hob), a security entrance door, and plenty of intelligently designed storage spaces. The apartment comes with a cellar. The purchase price also includes the furniture shown in the photos.

The traditional residential location has a full spectrum of urban amenities. In the immediate vicinity of the building there is a kindergarten and elementary school, a high school is within walking distance. Trendy bistros, bakeries, cafes, farmers' shops, a supermarket, pharmacies, a post office or banks, as well as an art cinema are all nearby. The Letenské náměstí tram stop with quick links to the city center and to the metro is a 5-minute walk away. Its proximity to the large Stromovka and Letenské Sady Garden landscaped parks make it a pleasant place to live.

Interior 95.74 m², balcony 1.33 m², cellar 9.3 m².
