This large, bright apartment with high ceilings, original architectural elements, and a balcony is located on the 4th floor of a classic apartment building. A perfect location in an attractive part of Černá Pole, on a side street right by Lužánky Park and the beautifully landscaped Náměstí 28. října Square.

The layout consists of a living room with windows facing east onto the courtyard, 3 west-facing rooms (currently used as a bedroom, a study, and a walk-in dining room), an eat-in kitchen with a balcony, a large entry hall, a spacious bathroom, and a pantry.

Original architectural elements such as parquet floors and double-wing solid wood doors have been preserved and repaired. New casement windows. The antique furniture shown in the photos may be purchased separately. Heating by a new gas boiler. Safety is provided by a motion sensor system. The building was reconstructed in 2000 (new wiring and plumbing), there are currently plans to enlarge the balcony, revitalize the common garden in the courtyard, and install a new elevator. Parking is in front of the house in a zone for residents.

The house stands on a quiet alley near a small park and the entrance to Lužánky Park. A large number of historic buildings and landscaped greenery lend the Černá Pole district an air of dignity. The center of Brno can be reached on foot or by a short tram ride. There are complete public amenities nearby: schools from a kindergarten to a high school, restaurants, cafes, a post office, a pharmacy, shops, and the Municipal Theater.

Interior 163 m², balcony 2 m² (after reconstruction 9 m²), cellar 12.5 m².

* Area of the unit according to the Civil Code. The area consists of the sum total area of the entire unit bounded by perimeter walls.
