This south-facing 706 sq. m. plot is situated in a traditional residential section of the Malvazinky neighborhood at the foot of Paví Hill. A very quiet location with minimal traffic and nice views of the greenery.

The exposed southern slope with mature trees offers plenty of sunshine and views of the Dívčí hrady rocks. All utility network hookups are on the boundary of the plot. The build-up in the neighborhood ranges between 25-30%. The future driveway to the plot will be from the street on the lower side of the offered area.

A sought-after location with civic amenities within walking distance or a quick drive. There are several kindergartens, an elementary school, and a grocery store nearby. The district features significant villas from the 1930s and plenty of greenery. Paví Hill is a few steps away from the plot; a baroque mansion with the Santoška Garden is a short walk away. The connection to the center is provided by trams; there is also a bus that goes to the Anděl metro station (line B) (Na Knížecí). Traveling by car is more comfortable thanks to the proximity of the Blanka tunnel complex.
