Located on a quiet corner of Chester Square in elegant and exclusive Belgravia, this eight-bedroom, seven-bathroom house offers the height of London refinement.

With a signature clean and white façade, the house has been expertly renovated by the prestigious Wilben designer firm, which redecorated the home in elegant cool tones and high quality fixtures. There is an elevator to all floors, which feature an eat-in kitchen with a central island, a bright drawing room with access to a garden with outside seating, a sophisticated dining room, a study, a cinema room, and a gym with a massage room. The comfortable upstairs bedrooms have carpeted floors and plenty of closets. The luxurious bathrooms have marble tiles and freestanding bathtubs as well as showers.

Its high-end features include air conditioning, Lutron lighting, underfloor heating, a Control4 automated audiovisual home system, a top-class security system, and a double garage. Chester Square enjoys an abundance of greenery. Within walking distance, there are many restaurants, luxury shops, galleries, as well as a tennis court and playground.

Interior: 721.02 sq. m. The property is being sold by Strutt & Parker.
