This interestingly spatially designed, partly furnished apartment with a balcony offering views of a picturesque square, on the 2nd floor of a well-maintained Art Nouveau building from 1907 with an elevator. The building is set on a peaceful square with plenty of greenery and a nice historic school building, in the rapidly developing Karlín neighborhood with full amenities and quick connections to the city center. The Křižíkova metro station is an eight-minute walk away, while a tram stop is just three minutes from the building.

The apartment consists of a bright living room with a bay window and access to the balcony connected with a fully fitted open plan kitchen which is loosely connected to a study that could be separated by sliding doors, 2 bedrooms (one facing a quiet square, the second with a walk-in closet to the courtyard with greenery), a bathroom with a bathtub and toilet, and a central entrance hall with built-in wardrobes.

Parquet floors, tiles, high ceilings, wing doors, washer, dishwasher, microwave oven, built-in wardrobes in the hall and one of the bedrooms, blinds in the bedrooms, camera system in the building.

* Size of the unit according to the Housing Act.

The area consists of the sum total of the internal area of every room.
