This modern one-bedroom apartment with a loggia is located on the 14th floor of the Sky Park new residential building designed by the world-renowned Zaha Hadid Architects studio. The apartment is in the first tower of the project, which offers unique, comfortable living in a new district with panoramic views of the city and of Bratislava Castle, and a full spectrum of services.

The layout of the apartment consists of an entrance hall, a bathroom with a bathtub, a separate toilet, a living room connected to the kitchen, and a bedroom. Access to the loggia, which provides panoramic views, is possible from both rooms.

The apartment is completed to a higher standard, which includes wooden parquet floors, aluminum windows, an HVAC system, and higher quality sanitary ware in the bathroom.

The apartment building is in a new part of the Bratislava city center located near the Eurovea shopping center with restaurants lining the Danube embankment. The location also provides quick access to public transport, including a bus station with shops and international transport links. Bratislava's historic city center is a comfortable ten-minute walk away.
