This stylish duplex apartment facing a landscaped green courtyard is part of a Lesser Town courtyard balcony house from 1620. The historic building is located in the heart of Kampa Island, just a few steps from the Čertovka Stream, close to the Petřín Gardens and Charles Bridge. Living in Kampa offers the opportunity to become part of a close community and properties with this potential, rarely become available.

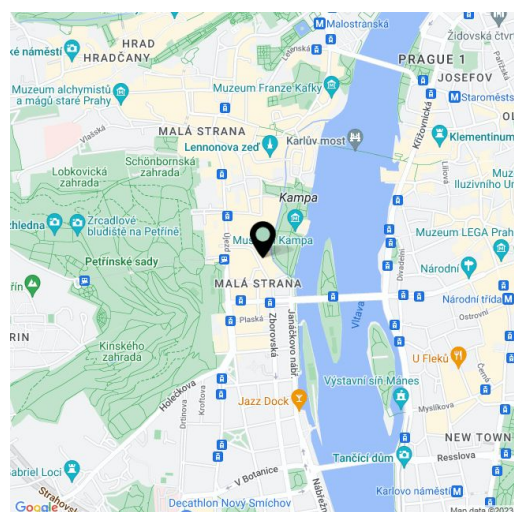

On the entrance level (on the 2nd floor of the building), there is a living room connected to a kitchen, an entrance hall, and a bathroom with a shower. Upstairs, there are 2 bedrooms and a bathroom.

The whole building was completely renovated in 2002. Facilities include wooden windows and floors, tiles and underfloor heating in the bathrooms, and Villeroy & Boch sanitary ware. Heating is provided from a central boiler room. No elevator.

The boutique apartment building stands on a one-way side street next to Kampa Park, a few steps from the legendary Mlýnská Café, a famous ice cream parlor, and many restaurants. A tram stop and the cable car leading to the top of Petřín Hill are nearby. The Anděl or Malostranská metro stations are a few minutes away by tram. There are state and private schools in the area ranging from a kindergarten to a high school, and the French Lyceum is close-by.
