This new stylish apartment is on the 2nd floor of a residential palace built in the 19th century in the spirit of late Historicism in a prestigious location near Lužánky Park by the important Austrian architect Josef Nebehosteny, co-author of the Mahen Theater. Due to the high demand for rental apartments in this location, the unit is suitable as an investment.

The attic apartment facing the courtyard consists of a living room with a preparation for a kitchen, a bedroom, a gallery accessible from the living area and bedroom, a bathroom, a separate toilet, and a hallway.

The quality facilities include multi-layer wooden floors, hardwood oak moldings, Dakea skylights, fireproof doors, paneled interior doors, underfloor heating in the bathroom, large-format tiles by Story of Stone, a Connet air sink on an oak wood counter, a wall-mounted toilet with an AquaBlade system and SoftClose seat, a data socket, or an EPS sensor. District heating from a heating plant; hot water by a boiler. The unit comes with a cellar storage unit, and you can rent a parking space located behind the building. There is no elevator.

The building is located in a sought-after part in the Veverří district, right next to a public transport stop from where you can get to the city center in a short time, and all of Brno's university faculties are within a short trolley bus ride. The building is located right by the entrance to the nicely landscaped Lužánky Park with a wide range of sports activities, and the world-famous Villa Tugendhat is also within walking distance. The district boasts many important architectural monuments and offers complete civic amenities.

Total usable area 79.7 m², of which floor area 56 m², gallery 23.7 m².

Due to the current situation, the investor reserves the right to make minor adjustments to the standards.

* Area of the unit according to the Civil Code. The area consists of the sum total area of the entire unit bounded by perimeter walls.
